COLLECTION FRAGMENT NOIR

MADE IN FRANCE

Maison DEGRENNÉ introduces a new piece to the L Fragment Noir collection:

the bread-and-butter plate.

Decidedly graphic and contemporary, L Fragment Noir reinterprets Limoges extra-white porcelain with a deep black décor inspired by mineral structures.

The subtly raised pattern captures the light and creates a refined interplay of contrasts between satin matte and brilliant shine, achieved through a highly precise enamelling and de-enamelling technique.

A delicate gradient, shifting from white to deep black, is then meticulously applied to the rim of the plates by our artisans in our Limoges Manufacture.

This modern and elegant collection showcases the wealth of craftsmanship mastered by our artisans.

This new versatile format can be used both as a bread and butter plate or as a saucer, designed to accommodate the tea cup from the L collection.

Practical yet refined, it harmoniously completes table settings with a bold character and timeless elegance.
